

I feel that the Morse code requirement should be eliminated, but that the CW or Morse code band allocations should remain intact as well as add the band limitations for the current licenses. This allows wider use of phone privileges for upgrading operators, and leaves an area of growth for Amateurs to develop skills in new areas - opening up privileges by learning. Thanks.